Recognise your local 'Australian of the Year'

The Shire of Broome is calling for nominations for the prestigious Premier's Australia Day Active Citizenship Awards.

Each year, individuals and groups are recognised as part of the Australia Day Combined Clubs Breakfast at Town Beach on January 26.

Nominees should be someone who has made a significant contribution to the local community, provided leadership resulting in the enhancement of community life, and created a significant initiative to bring about positive change or inspiring qualities as a role model for the community.

Broome Shire President Graeme Campbell said the awards are an opportunity to recognise the important contributions made by special individuals and organisations within the community.

"In any community, it is important to acknowledge the hard effort, achievement and inspiration individuals and organisations provide," Cr Campbell said.

"Broome has many outstanding local role models who deserve to be nominated for these important awards."

Nomination forms are available from the Shire of Broome Administration Office or via www.ausdaywa.com.au. All nominations should be lodged at the Shire of Broome by 4pm, 25 November 2011.
