Lullfitz Drive Re-openings and Associated Name Changes

The Shire has extended its public comment period and is seeking feedback on name changes to Lullfitz Drive and Fairway Drive, plus the removal of names for sections of Oryx Road and Coucal Road which currently exist on paper but not on the ground.

These roads are located along the east side of Sanctuary and Frangipani Resorts and on the north side of Sunset Rise.

Council has recommended the section of road reserve from Sanctuary Road, north to the intersection of Fairway Drive and the northern section of Lullfitz Drive be renamed Fairway Drive.

The section of road reserve currently known as Fairway Drive adjacent to the east side of Sunset Rise subdivision, from Gubinge Road to Sanctuary Road is be renamed Jigal Drive.

Other parts of Fairway Drive, and which are currently bush areas, west of Lullfitz Drive, are to remain officially unnamed until detailed planning is carried out on that area.

The Shire of Broome has extended its public comment period with regard to proposed road re-openings of closed sections of Lullfitz Drive.

Shire President Graeme Campbell said the community has the opportunity to comment on these changes.

“If you aren’t happy with these proposed changes or have other suggestions, then we need to hear from you before we refer this matter to the Department of Infrastructure and the Geographic Names Committee,” he said.

For a copy of the changes or enquiries contact Allan Ralph on 9191 3403. Written submissions are to be addressed to the Chief Executive Officer, PO Box 44 Broome 6725 prior to 2pm 11 August 2006.
