PUBLIC LIABILITY INSURANCE

Adequate insurance arrangements are required for the outdoor dining area to the value of $10,000,000.00. Any licence issued under the Shire of Broome Local Planning Policy 8.3 relating to Outdoor Dining is conditional to having acceptable public indemnity insurance with a provider acceptable to the Chief Executive Officer. The Shire, for the issue of an Outdoor Dining Licence requires written proof of this insurance cover.

The Public Liability Insurance Policy must be maintained continuously and the Shire must be provided with a copy accurately detailing the Policy Expiry Date. Licence fees are payable each financial year (i.e. 1 July to 30 June), however your Outdoor Dining Licence may also expire on the date of the Expiry of your Insurance. Should you fail to renew your Insurance, or it lapses, you must remove all tables and chairs from the footpath immediately, or as so directed by an Authorised Shire Officer. In addition, the Licensee shall agree to reimburse the Council following incidents related to outdoor dining, either in the approved outdoor dining area or which is directly associated with its operation (i.e. damage caused by flying objects etc).

NOTE: Outdoor dining tables and chairs must not be placed on the footpath until you hold a valid Outdoor Dining Licence, and have sufficient Public Liability Insurance Cover.
