Off the back of the success of the ongoing COVID Virtual Tri Series, the Broome Tri Club is pushing ahead with their 2020 events calendar. The Try Stars Program for 7-12 year-olds focuses on the fundamental movement skills.

The one-hour program will run for six weeks from July 24 and finish with the PIVITAL Cable Beach Triathlon on August 30. Children must be able to swim 25m and have a bike and helmet. All participants receive a rashie, drink bottle and hat.

Registration details will be posted on the club's Facebook page and website www.broometriclub.com.au.

PIVITAL Cable Beach Triathlon begins August 30.

This year's event will have three distances - Enticer, Sprint and Olympic, as well as the TRYStars finale.

With an emphasis on participation for both teams and individuals, the Tri Club is hoping to encourage both corporate and family teams.

With prizes donated by local businesses and a new best-dressed team category, there are plenty of reasons to sign up.

Registrations are now open via the club's Facebook page and website www.broometriclub.com.

The club is seeking a local sporting group or charity to provide volunteers for the event and is offering payment. If your club can help, contact broometriclub@gmail.com.
