TITLE	Clay pans and Spinifex and Fresh Water
MEDIUM	Acrylic on canvas
CATEGORY	Shinju Matsuri Art Award
YEAR	2024
DIMENSIONS	76 x 152cm
STORY	This painting is about the claypans and spinifex in the dry season when spinifex, the native plants and the country get dry. When the rain comes it makes the country green again. Sometimes we go hunting for animals for our families. With the Paru (spinifex) we pull out the whole plant, and we twist it around to make a flat basket (Jitatu) like a donut ring. Then this sits on the head and you can carry water for example. The water is in a Kapara like a shallow bowl which you make from the hard wood of a tree like Parntal (Owenia Reticulata).
