I'm passionate about Broome and committed to building a safe, thriving community for families, businesses and visitors. As a long-term local, I want to see Broome future-proofed as a great place to call home and a world-class destination.

I bring experience in policing and security, business ownership, and community leadership, including serving as Vice President of the Broome Chamber of Commerce and Director of an Indigenous enterprise. My work as a sports coach, mentor and WA Ambassador for men's mental health charity Spoke to a Bloke reflects my belief in the importance of wellbeing and inclusion. In my time as Councillor, I've successfully advocated for stronger safety measures and community investment, and I was honoured to receive Regional WA's 'Local Legend' Award in 2024 for services to men's mental health. With energy, experience and passion, I will continue working hard to secure the best outcomes for Broome's future.
