I have called Broome home for over 25 years, raising my family here I have experienced and gained valuable knowledge in the many facets of Broome's community and industry sectors.

I have had the privilege to work on many of our celebrated community events like Shinju Matsuri & NAIDOC, volunteer for a variety of community groups, be a valued committee member on multiple boards and represent our town and community on many different occasions within the Tourism Industry and other areas.

I have a great passion for our history, our growth, and equality. Broome is an extraordinary example of continued multiculturalism. In my view the importance of sustaining a balance between honoring and celebrating our town's history, concentrating on our growth with the next generation, and our continued work on equality is integral to our town's longevity, bringing about a refocus to continue to build a thriving community that is safe for all and offers opportunities for all that call Broome home.
