Head to the beach for Library and Information Week

Library and Information Week is underway and Broome Public Library will celebrate with the launch of Broome Beach Books for 2016.

Library and Information Week 2016 runs from May 23 to 29, with the launch of Broome Beach Books on Wednesday 25 May at 11am at Cable Beach.

Shire of Broome Library Coordinator, Sally Eaton, said Broome Beach Books would run each Wednesday from 11am to 11.45am until 28 September, with a Library staff member at Cable Beach each week with a selection of books just perfect for reading by the ocean.

“People are invited to take a book, read it at their leisure wherever they want, and return it to either the Library or the beach and swap for another beach book,” Ms Eaton said.

“There are no due dates or fines – it’s like a library without walls, so if you were hesitant to take our regular library books to the beach, why not grab one of our special beach books and enjoy them anywhere?”

Library and Information Week aims to raise the profile of libraries and information service professionals in Australia and showcase the many and varied resources and services that libraries provide to the community.
