KIDSPORT

Broome Little Athletics

BLA is well and truly at capacity this Term, with more than 174 athletes participating in their program. The BLA season officially ends on November 11 and will be rounded out by the Club Championship Twilight Carnival at Haynes Oval. Athletes will compete for club champion and runner-up girl/boy for each age group, followed by coaches' awards and a sausage sizzle wind-up. BLA will continue to train a Country Champs team, which will compete at Country's in Geraldton in mid-January. Anyone from BLA who qualifies for states in Perth during mid-March will keep up training in our State Team.

Broome Soccer Association

Following the completion of our highly successful Mini-Roos program this term, in Term 4 we will once again be running our 'Wacky Wednesday's' program for the Juniors, continuing to build upon skills and development from Term 1 & 2. Age groups from 5-11. Youth soccer will also recommence with training on Wednesday's and game days on Friday's, this will be open to students from Grade 6 through. Men's and Women's Senior Soccer will also continue from 6pm every Wednesday night. All programs will take place at BRAC, on the Father McMahon oval.

Please watch our Facebook page for further details.

Broome Sports Association

The Broome Sports Awards are on again, with the annual celebration set for Saturday, November 18 at the Civic Centre. Ticket sales and nominations for award categories close on October 9.

Broome Basketball Association

Broome Basketball Junior and Senior Competitions are back in Term 4. Juniors Comp runs on October 3 and 4.

The Seniors Comp runs on October 6, 7 and 8. Spectators are welcome to come along and support their favourite teams at the Broome Recreation and Aquatic Centre!

Broome Boxing Club

Broome Boxing Club caters for a range of boxing abilities, from those wanting to improve their fitness to boxing beginners. The club has already produced two State champions one going on to compete in National Elite titles Olympic pathways.

We have experienced coaches available to pursue professional dreams or to become fit. Sessions run Monday to Friday from 6pm at 43 Blackman Street.

Female or male, teenager or adult, Broome Boxing's aim is to be welcoming to everyone.

We even have a class for kids aged 7 to 12 held on Wednesdays at 5pm.

All sessions are $10 each. Pay as you go or speak to one of our legendary volunteers, who will be happy to discuss a payment plan.

In its short history, the club has developed a range of partnerships with like-minded organisations and is also open to building partnerships with other groups. The Club will be hosting its second sanctioned fight night with Boxing WA in early December.
