MARSH N T20 SKIP

JACKSON BARRETT

Mitch Marsh is a larrikin, a culture man and according to teammates, a natural born leader — now he is a recognised one.

The Western Australian's rollercoaster from touted youngster, maligned international and now to a cricketer born again has landed him a job as the country's T20 captain, replacing Aaron Finch.

Marsh, pictured, will lead a 14-man Australian squad named for a short-form tour of South Africa in August which includes five fellow West Aussies — but not in-form Perth Scorchers skipper Ashton Turner.

A provisional squad for October's one-day international World Cup in India was also revealed on Monday, which thrusts into surprise contention young New South Wales spinning all-rounder Tanveer Sangha quick Nathan Ellis and WA's Aaron Tor George Baile format prospect. mins, Mitchell Cam Green and miss the series move between t World Cup.
